

XM radio is the greatest thing going proving that the best succeeds. I'm willing to pay for quality and it's not up to the National Association of Broadcasters to dictate the programming I hear. There is the First Amendment at stake. I urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160. We need the quality programming XM radio provides.

Susan Tucker